Community Calendar

In addition to its own activities and events, the City of La Habra collaborates with local schools, non-profits and the faith-based community on activities and services, and these entities also hold their own events and activities that benefit the community. In order to better serve the Community we have created a Community Calendar that combines this information. To view the calendar, please visit:

Community Resource Guide

A Message from the City Council...

WELCOME TO LA HABRA!

A community's spirit is measured by the sum of its residents, businesses, and local service groups who work together to find common ground and build a great locale to live, work, and play.

Known as "A Caring Community," La Habra is a place unlike any other in Orange County. Here neighbors are more than just the folks who live next door; they are family with whom we share our life story. Our roots are strong and we have committed ourselves to the betterment of our community one step at a time, one day at a time. Our community leaders and staff work hand-in-hand with our residents, providing outstanding programs and services for all to enjoy.

The purpose of the La Habra Community Guide is to provide you with a useful resource to help you understand where to find assistance. The Guide identifies municipal, county, state, and federal officials and agencies, and provides valuable information on local school districts, public utilities, non-profit organizations, local points-of-interest, and community events.

Nearly a century after its founding, La Habra is "Still the One." On behalf of the La Habra City Council and your more than 61,000 neighbors, welcome home to La Habra!
