IF YOU BUILT IT, WE WILL COME L.A. ARCHITECTURAL TOUR WITH STEP-ON GUIDE CURT

#9064.100

Friday, January 17, 2020

Fee: $99

DEPARTS: 8:15 AM..... RETURNS: 6:30 PM

Today we are joined by professional step-on guide, Curt, who is a history buff with an expertise on the evolution of Los Angeles, and is especially loved for his charismatic personality and fun stories. Journey into L.A.’s past with this tour highlighting the old, new and most unique buildings that make this city’s architecture so iconic. If there’s a place in Los Angeles where you can hear the past, it’s the historic Union Station. Follow Curt through the last major train station built in this country to see its gorgeous Spanish revival and art deco style which is a true reflection of the rich Los Angeles culture that surrounds it. Visit the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels and its unexpectedly ultra-modern construction. In stark contrast are the architectural triumphs of the 1893 Bradbury Building, with its staggeringly complex iron work illuminated by the beautiful skylights. Visit the brilliantly constructed Walt Disney Concert Hall with 22 million tons of steel in sweeping, graceful curves that mimic the music played inside its walls. We’ll go back in time as Curt highlights the beautiful buildings and homes in and around downtown that embody turn-of-the-century charm. Enjoy a docent-guided tour at Heritage Square, a living history museum reflecting the development of Southern California from the Civil War to the early 20th Century. The eight historic structures located here were all constructed during the Victorian Era and were witnesses to the everyday lives of Angelinos during the end of the 19th century and early 20th century. See one of the oldest neighborhoods in L.A. on Carroll Avenue in Angelino Heights. It consists of Victorian-era houses and has served as the backdrop for countless movies from the earliest days of cinema to the present. We’ll take a ride on historic Angels Flight, the shortest railway in the world, that was built in 1901 to transport people to the top of Bunker Hill. Enjoy time for lunch on your own at Grand Central Market, a downtown landmark since 1917, that brings together the eclectic cuisines and cultures of L.A. Suggested: walking shoes. Price includes Tour Director, Step-On Guide and Driver gratuities. Departs from La Bonita Park parking lot.

#9024.100

Monday, February 10, 2020

Fee: $109

We begin at an alpaca ranch that is a truly magical place in the heart of Temecula where they celebrate all things alpaca! On a guided tour, you’ll get a chance to meet these inquisitive and friendly creatures that have luxurious fleece, captivating faces and gentle nature — you will fall in love! You’ll learn lots of interesting facts and some of the quirky things alpacas do. Enjoy time to shop in The Alpaca Shoppe, where you’ll find many items made from alpaca fleece such as hats, scarves, and gloves, as well as other alpaca-themed items. Then, imagine a dreamy destination where you can find artisanal chocolates and exotic animals all in one setting. Well, dream no more because we found it at Sugarplum Farm! At this wonderful location, we’ll enjoy time in the zoo which is home to friendly, photogenic therapy animals including ducks, goats, pigs, miniature horses, a zebra and Zeus the camel. The exotic animals at this intimate animal sanctuary welcome children with special needs,

Wounded Warriors and some even make regular visits to children's hospitals. Meanwhile, chocolates here come in a wide variety of concoctions, including peanut butter and jelly, milk chocolate chili, and even key lime pie. But on our guided tour you'll get the exclusive opportunity to sample and buy these elegant chocolates direct from the chocolatier. Enjoy time to shop in the store which features chocolate, hand-made soaps and farm products like honey and farm-fresh eggs. We top off the day with an included boxed lunch and wine tasting at an award-winning boutique winery that is surrounded by 109 acres of carefully tended vines.
